

NOAH

Lyrics by Drew Lane/Leighton Gates, Music by Drew Lane

© 2016, Andrew Lane/Leighton Gates

Noah built his ark on dry land
And everyone stood and laughed
They didn't know that he had a plan
They just pointed and said:

Noah - where're you gonna float your boat? (X2)

He marched all the animals two by two
As the rains fell from the sky
Everything left was swept away
But Noah and family were dry

REPEAT CHORUS

The water was wet - the water was deep
But Noah built the boat real good
And soon enough, dry land appeared
And they praised God like they should

Hey Noah, how crazy can you be
To build your boat so far from the seat?
Don't you know a boat has gotta float
Tell me, where you gonna float your boat

The dove brought an olive branch
And put it in Noah's hands
Everyone around said "Hallelujah!"
Because there was dry land

REPEAT CHORUS