

For The Times (Please Forgive)

Music and lyrics by Drew Lane. (C) 2014, Andrew Lane.

On this day we come together
To restore the common ground
And to offer as a sacrifice
Our hearts forever bound
For the times when we were fighting
For the times when we were wrong
For the times when we did all to hurt
For the times we didn't get along

*Please forgive the things I've said to you
And forgive the way I've been
Please forgive the moments when I've turned away
Please forgive the hurt that I have caused
Because I haven't understood
Please forgive this humble heart on this day*

For the times I yelled in anger
For the times my words were lies
For the times I didn't stand by you
For the times I made you cry
For times I took for granted
All the love you showed to me
For the times I took what I wasn't mine
And for the times I didn't see

Repeat Chorus
