

Team For God

Lyrics by Leighton Gates, Music by Drew Lane. (C) 2014, Leighton Gates/Andrew Lane.

My feet will do the walking
And my tongue will do the talking
My hands will do the clapping
And my heart will do the loving
My mouth will do the praising
And my brain will do the thinking
'Cause my body is a team for God
My body is a team for God

My ears will do the hearing
And my voice will do the singing
My eyes will do the seeing
And my nose will do the smelling
My knees will do the bending
And my back will do the bowing
'Cause my body is a team for God
My body is a team for God

*We'll praise and clap and sing and walk
We'll hear and think and see and talk
We'll all work together as one
'Cause my body is a team for God*

Repeat Verse 1, Chorus, Verse 1
